

With Burning Hearts, We Proclaim the Good News

ST. JOHN EUDES

Second Sunday of Easter (or Sunday of Divine Mercy)

Jesus said to Thomas,
"Have you come to believe because you have seen me?
Blessed are those who have not seen
and have believed."

2nd Sunday of Easter (or Sunday of Divine Mercy)

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!"

PEACE BE WITH YOU

Our Gospel reading today depicts the disciples in a terrifying moment. They have locked their doors, huddling together in safety at a time when the Lord has transformed the entire course of human events. Jesus has risen from the dead. He has destroyed death and unlocked eternal life. But who can fully grasp all of this? Not even Thomas, one of the twelve devoted companions of Jesus, understands what has happened. Those of us who have never faced maltreatment for our faith can only imagine the disciples' panic. Unimpeded by their bolted doors, Jesus visits his frightened friends. His appearance must have been shocking, since he says to them "Peace be with you" not once, but twice. If the disciples hoped Jesus would come back to them, they might have wished he would appear as a victorious leader or glorious king. Instead, he comes as they have known him and most need him: as a companion, and he brings with him the eternal peace of God. They might have wanted a body-guard; instead he gives them peace.

AT LEAST A SHADOW

God knows what we need far better than we ourselves know. Jesus offers peace to the disciples—twice. He knows they must soon leave the security of locked doors. Shortly he will fill them with the gift of the Holy Spirit and rely on them to lead the community—and the world—into a new baptism, a new communion. At that moment in the locked room, the disciples see only threats to their lives. Jesus sees their fearful hearts and gives them what they need: peace. We see how Peter is transformed. Instead of hiding in shadows, he becomes a source of healing and light; his very shadow draws people into the mystery of God's power. Jesus' gift of peace makes a real difference in our lives. We can ask every day for more peace, in our hearts and in our world.

First Friday is May 3

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament begins at the conclusion of the 8:30 a.m. Mass. Join us for an hour of tranquility in the company of the Lord.

Benediction is at 6:00 p.m.

Holy Week Thank You

The Holy Week liturgies were absolutely wonderful this year! We would like to thank more than 160 volunteers who helped make Holy Week at St. John Eudes a spiritual and enriching experience.

To Mary Ann Prager, Roy & Adele Vargas and their volunteers for the "Living the Eucharist" series that helped us get prepared for Easter. To Mary Ann Prager and her compassion team volunteers for the Rice Bowl project.

During Lent, To Narong Tanawong and his team for preparing delicious soup. To the Filipino, Spanish, Children's, Youth, Compassion and Music Ministries for the spiritual and meaningful Stations of the Cross. To Nellie Newman, Joni Ferrero & their team of volunteers for our wonderful Seder Meal.

To our RCIA team who helped to prepare our candidates for baptism, eucharist and confirmation.

To Shy Suttles and the Altar Servers, to Chris Ranieri and all the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, to Jose Gomes and all the Sacristans, to Tom Siciliano and the Welcome Ministry, to Dr. Dana Howell, the cantors and choir members for their beautiful music, to Javier Lopez and the Media Ministry. To our team of volunteer ushers. To Karen Fredrickson and the Environment Ministry for the amount of planning and dedication that transformed our worship space on a daily basis.

To Marty Bowden for her dedicated support and directing of all the ministries. as well as our own Phil Moore for writing all the scripts and who was the Emcee for all the uplifting Masses and services we experienced.

Our Easter Season could never have become a reality without all these Ministries and volunteers working together as a team. The joy of Easter was felt at St. John Eudes and our liturgies are being used as a training model for parishes throughout the United States.

Thank you again to everyone who helped make the Easter Season at St. John Eudes Church a resounding success!

Formación continua sobre la prevención de abuso sexual infantil . . .

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Desde el 2002, la Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles ha capacitado cerca de 330,000 adultos para proteger proactivamente a los niños y jóvenes del abuso sexual infantil y para denunciar toda conducta indebida. Además, mas de 165,000 niños y jóvenes reciben capacitación sobre un ambiente seguro cada año. En el 2018, la Oficina Protegiendo a los Niños lanzo su nuevo programa "Dar poder a los niños y jóvenes de Dios", el cual otorga poder a los niños y jóvenes por medio de los conocimientos y las herramientas para que se mantengan seguros, y les enseña como conversar sobre el tema con sus padres, cuidador o adulto confiable si alguien los hace sentir incomodos, asustados o confundidos. Did you Know?

Ongoing child sexual abuse prevention training . . .

Since 2002, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles has trained about 330,000 adults to proactively protect children and young people from child sexual abuse and reporting misconduct.

In addition, over 165,000 children and young people receive safe environment training annually. In 2018, the Office of Safeguard the Children launched its new "Empowering God's Children & Young People" Program, which empowers children and young people by giving them the knowledge and tools to keep themselves safe and teaches them to tell a parent, guardian or safe adult if anyone makes them feel uncomfortable, scared or confuse.
